WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 13.

A Double Tragedy. - Between nine and ten o'clock on Sunday night a double tragedy was enacted in Williamsburg, N. Y., instigated by jealousy and whiskey. A young man named William Anderson, twenty-one years of age, who occupies the humble position of assistant driver of an ice-cart, suddenly become frantically jealous of a young woman named Anne Cun-ningham, with whom he had been keeping steady company for a long time. Shortly after nine o'clock he visited her residence, South Fifth and First streets, and peremptorily ordered her to abandon a certain female associate. The girl, who is said to be very high spirited, talked to him in a very independent style and ordered him from her presence. This so exasperated Anderson that he took from one of his pantaloons pockets a common jacknife and plunged it into her back four or five times, in-flicting severe but not fatal wounds.

The young woman uttered a piercing shrick when she found herself prostrated, and Anderson, thinking that she was about to die, plunged the same knife three times into his left breast, but none of the wounds are considered serious. He was conveyed to the Fourth-street stationhouse on a stretcher by the police, and remained in a very quiet condition up to midnight, when, on having been informed by the surgeons attending him that he was not much hurt, he aroused himself and anxiously inquired after the condition of Miss Cunningham. On being informed that she was not seriously cut he fell into a quiet slumber; but as the young woman received so many stab wounds at his hands it is difficult at present to predict the result. Miss Cunningham is a young woman of good reputation, about 17 years of age, and a great deal of sympathy is manifested toward her by all the citizens in the neighborhood of the tragedy.

With a view to the fall trade, we respectfully announce that these Mills are now completed and that we will take pleasure in showing samples of all our goods (now manufacturing) to dealers or others intered. We manufacture PEARL HOMINY, GRITS AND SAMP,

AND PEARL FLOUR AND MEAL. The offal from these various articles combined makes a very valuable article of food for horses and cows, to which the attention of those interested is invited. We claim superiority for the Hominy made we claim superiority for the Hominy made upon our Patent Mills for the following reasons:

First. It is made from dry corn without having to go through the soaking process necessary in the old way of making hominy, for the pur-pose of removing the husks, which causes it to begin to spoil from the moment it is thus made. Whereas our process puts it in a drier conduion than corn ever is naturally.

Secondly. The same bulk of our Hominy will produce fitty per cent more of the cooked article than by the wet process, as ours swells while cooking, while the other swells while soaking, before being cooked.

Thirdly. It takes half the time to cook.

Fourthly. It can be shipped with safety from spoiling to any climate, making a cheap substitute for rice and beans. The above also applies to our Pearl Corn Grits. The best proof of the superiority of Hominy and Grits made upon our Patent Mills is that they have been adopted by the Army and Navy of the United States, and approved by all who have used them.
